- [3] On October 31, 2023 the Landlord submitted into evidence the Landlord Statement of Income and Expenses (Form 10) (the “Statement”).
- [4] All documents (including the Tenant Notice of Annual Allowable Rent Increases (Form 8), the Notice of Hearing and Evidence Package) were properly served to the parties in accordance with subsection 100(1) of the Act.
- [5] On January 15, 2024 a teleconference hearing was held before a Residential Tenancy Officer (the “Officer”). The Representatives appeared, representing the Landlord. One Tenant appeared, representing themselves.

Issue to be Decided

- i. Is the Landlord entitled to an additional rent increase above the annual guidelines?

Summary of the Evidence

- [6] The Landlord submitted 57-pages of documents into evidence to support and assist the Application and the Statement.

Landlord's Evidence and Submissions

- [7] The Representatives testified that expenses for the Residential Property have increased over the past three years and revenue has not increased. The Representatives testified that fuel expenses have drastically increased and the Landlord is trying to control costs as best as possible. The Landlord is entitled to a reasonable return on investment. The Representatives testified that some maintenance is required for the Residential Property, but the delays are due to shortages of workers.

Tenants' Evidence and Submissions

- [8] One of the Tenant provided a written submission and photographs of their rental unit into evidence. The Tenant participated at the hearing and testified that a rent increase will cause financial hardship, and that the Residential Property needs repair. The Tenant testified that it is difficult to justify a rent increase with the needed repairs to the Residential Property.

Adjustments to the Statement

- [9] The Officer's adjustments to the Statement are provided below and are reflected in Appendix "A" of this Order.

1. [Line 1 – Rental Income] $242,011.00

The Representative testified that there was an error in the Statement and the correct income is $221,180.00. This includes $6,280.00 from revenue from laundry machines. The additional rent increase would increase the total rental income to $225,004.00.

2. [Value of investment in the property] $1,925,000.00

The value of the investment in the property is $1,925,000.00 which represents a 2020 appraisal completed on the Residential Property.

Analysis

- [10] The Application is made in accordance with section 75 of the Act and is pursuant to subsection 50(1). When deliberating on the Application, the Officer must consider the factors outlined in subsections 50(3) and (4) of the Act and section 4 of the Residential Tenancy Regulations (the "Regulations"). The prescribed law is as follows:

Factors

(3) The Director shall consider the following factors, as applicable, in deciding whether to approve an application for a rent increase under subsection (1):

- (a) the rent history for the affected rental unit in the three years preceding the date of the application;*
- (b) a change in operating expenses and capital expenditures in the three years preceding the date of the application that the Director considers relevant and reasonable;*
- (c) the expectation of the landlord to have a reasonable return on the landlord's capital investment;*
- (d) the expectation of the tenant that rent increases will remain within the annual guideline.*

Other factors

(4) The Director may also consider

- (a) any other factor considered relevant by the Director; and*
- (b) any other factor prescribed in the regulations.*

Request for additional increase

- 4. For the purposes of clause 50(4)(b) of the Act, the Director may also consider that the purchase of a residential property should not require an increase of rent within the first year in order to achieve a reasonable return on the landlord's capital investment. (EC269/23)*

- [11] The Application requires the Landlord to prove, on a balance of probabilities, that they are entitled to an additional rent increase above the annual allowable guidelines. This means that the Landlord must provide the decision-maker with sufficiently clear, convincing and cogent evidence to establish their request.

The Factors

- [12] Regarding clause 50(3)(a), the Landlord provided the rents for the Residential Property over the past three years.
- [13] Regarding clause 50(3)(b), the Landlord provided numerous documents into evidence including: invoices, receipts, and summary financial statements to assist in establishing a change in the operating expenses over the past three years.
- [14] Regarding clause 50(3)(c), the Statement's income and expenses disclose that the Landlord currently yields a 3.6% return on investment. After the adjustments to the Statement (found in Appendix "A"), and the inclusion of the annual allowable and the additional rent increase, the return on investment would yield a 3.9% return.
- [15] Regarding clause 50(3)(d), the evidence establishes that the last rent increases happened in 2022 for the Residential Property. No additional rent increases occurred.

- [16] The Residential Property was not purchased in the past 12 months. The Residential Property does not fit into the Regulations additional factor for consideration.
- [17] The Officer concludes that the Landlord is entitled to an additional rent increase. The Officer comes to this conclusion after considering all the factors together. The Landlord has established that its operating costs have changed over the past three years (disclosed in the Statement). Specifically, the Officer references an increase in fuel, property tax and management fees. Further, the Landlord has established that an additional increase would provide a reasonable return on investment. The factors weigh in favour of the Landlord's additional rent increase. Therefore, the Applications are allowed.
- [18] The Landlord is permitted to increase the rents by the annual allowable set by the Director in the amount of 3% and the Landlord is permitted to increase the rent by an additional 3% on the effective dates set below. A total rent increase of 6% is allowed.

Conclusion

- [19] The Applications are allowed.
- [20] TAKE NOTE: This decision contains sensitive information of the Landlord and that the parties are required to preserve its confidentiality pursuant to subsection 75(3) of the Act.
- [21] Order LD24-029 will be served to the parties by e-mail on January 25, 2024.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT
