BACKGROUND

- [7] The parties entered into a written, fixed-term tenancy agreement for the Unit, commencing November 1, 2024, and ending November 1, 2025. The tenancy then continued on a monthly basis. Rent in the amount of $1,550.00 is due on the first day of the month. A $1,550.00 security deposit was paid at the beginning of the tenancy.
- [8] On November 17, 2025, the Landlord served the Tenant with a Form 4(A) Eviction Notice effective December 17, 2025, for failing to pay rent in the amount of $1,550.00 and for repeatedly late rent payments. The Tenant stated he received a copy of the Notice only in late December 2025, as he was living away from the Unit.
- [9] On January 6, 2026, the Landlord filed a Form 2(B) Landlord Application to Determine Dispute (the “Application”) with the Rental Office seeking vacant possession of the Unit and for the Sheriff to put the Landlord in possession, which is determined in Order LD26-038. The Landlord Representative stated she served the Application to the Tenant on January 6, 2026, by posting it to the Unit’s door.
- [10] In Order LD26-038, the tenancy between the parties is terminated effective February 27, 2026, at 5:00 p.m.
- [11] The Landlord also seeks an Order for rent owing and disposal of the Tenant’s personal property, which is determined in this Order.
- [12] On January 12, 2026, the Rental Office emailed the parties notice of a teleconference hearing scheduled for January 29, 2026.
- [13] On January 23, 2026, the Rental Office sent the parties a 12-page PDF evidence package.
- [14] On January 28, 2026, two Landlord Representatives and the Tenant participated in a teleconference hearing. The parties confirmed receipt of the evidence package, and the Landlord Representatives confirmed that all evidence submitted to the Rental Office was included. The Tenant did not submit any documents to the Rental Office.
